General Conditions for Reproduction

Photographic reproductions should be made as faithful and accurate to the original as possible. Requests for adjustment such as cropping, overprinting or bleeding the page edge must be made in writing. Electronically altering scanned copies of our images with software is prohibited unless written permission is obtained.

Broadcasters/videographers must include an acknowledgement to the Los Alamos Historical Society Archives & Collections in their credit trailers

Publishers/broadcasters shall furnish the Los Alamos Historical Society WITHOUT CHARGE one (1) copy of each publication, book, videotape or DVD in which the museum's archival materials appear.

Permissions are for the use of our digital scans or reproductions, which doesn't necessarily resolve all copyright claims. Some material may require additional diligence. The Los Alamos Historical Society gives no exclusive rights to any publisher, author, photographer or videographer and assumes no responsibility for duplication of subjects by others and no responsibility for claims by third parties.

Payment must be made in US dollars on or before the time of publication or broadcast. Invoice will be sent via email and can be paid online, or a check can be provided for payment. Checks should be made payable to the Los Alamos Historical Society.

If all conditions have been met, the requesting individual or organization is granted permission to use the materials listed above for the project specified. Permission is granted for ONE TIME USE ONLY.
